

PROFESSOR ANTHONY MICHAEL SABINO, ESQ.
 SABINO & SABINO, P.C.,
 92 WILLIS AVENUE,
 2nd FLOOR
 MINEOLA, NY 11501
 516-294-3199

File Last Updated: 2/15/00

I. Profession	Accrediting Agency or Jurisdiction	Date of Admission
Attorney at Law	New York	1984
	Pennsylvania	1985
	Southern & Eastern Districts	1984
	Second Circuit	1991
	Third Circuit	1991
	Ninth Circuit	1999
	District of Arizona	1999
	United States Supreme Court	1999
Professor of Law	St. John's University	1988-Present

II. Professional Organization	Date of Admission	Active/Inactive
Nassau County Bar Association	1995	Active
American Bankruptcy Institute	1990	Active
Federal Bar Association	1990-97	Inactive
Maritime Lawyers Association	1990-98	Inactive
Commercial Law League	1984	Active

III. General professional experience:

Former law clerk to federal bankruptcy judge. Seventeen years in private practice, first with several top tier New York City law firms. Opened own firm in 1995. Active practice, heavy in complex corporate litigation. Extensive bankruptcy experience and expertise described below. Litigated all types of matters for business clients, both plaintiffs and defendants, in federal and state courts.

Professor of Law, St. John's University, since 1988, first adjunct, now full-time. Subjects taught include bankruptcy, general corporate law, international law, U.C.C., government regulation of business

Published book on bankruptcy and numerous bankruptcy law articles (described below). Numerous law review articles cited by several federal circuit courts, many district courts, on variety of subjects, including real estate, maritime law, securities law, general corporate, federal practice, taxes, white collar crime, and others.

Active in various bar associations, see below for details on bankruptcy and ADR committees.

Frequent speaker in CLE presentations of Commercial Law League, Nassau County Bar Association, and others. Lectured and presented papers on bankruptcy, securities, federal practice areas. Chaired other CLE events. Frequent pro bono speaker to citizens groups.

IV. General pertinent experience:

Nationally recognized authority on bankruptcy law. Numerous articles published in the nation's leading law reviews, legal journals, and business magazines on bankruptcy law subjects. Often quoted by media on bankruptcy topics.

Author of book, "Practical Guide to Bankruptcy," cited by courts. Author of numerous law review articles, cited by Seventh Circuit, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg while on the D.C. Circuit, and dozens of district and bankruptcy courts as authoritative.

Former law clerk to federal bankruptcy judge. Practiced with major New York City firms, opened own firm in 1995. Active bankruptcy practice in all cases, representing all types of parties. Represented various banks, lenders, and lessors in "megabankruptcy" cases, including Johns-Manville, Continental, TWA, and others.

Former Chair, Bankruptcy Section, Federal Bar Association. Active in numerous bankruptcy organizations and bar associations.

Fully trained in mediation and arbitration. Member of NASD mediation and arbitration panels. Lectures frequently on ADR topics. Presently Vice-Chair and Chair-Elect of Nassau County Bar Association ADR Committee. Current projects include drafting proposed local bankruptcy rules for Eastern District on ADR.

V. Mediation training:

Fully trained in Southern District three day ADR training session. Qualified for NASD mediation. Fully trained and experienced in NASD ADR and Chairperson roles. Active in lecturing and implementation of ADR for Nassau County Bar Association.

VI. Pertinent bankruptcy training:

See above.

VII. General pertinent business or legal experience :

See above.

AMS/dal